

JEAN BIECHER
& FILS
ALSACE

Riesling – Reserve

DEPUIS
1762

Named after the first vintage made by the Biecher family, the 1762 range is a vinous exploration of Alsace heritage. It's intended to be a picture of Alsace, seen through the lens of her mature vineyards, in a given vintage. Therefore, the cuvée is composed of rare and extraordinary parcels of vines.

Tasting notes

Appearance : Pale straw in colour with brilliant clarity and youthful green tints.

Nose : An intensely varietal nose featuring lifted citrus notes, freshly squeezed lemons and sublime floral nuances..

Palate : Appealing, lively and spine-tingling to its core, the palate perfectly balances the flavours of lime juice, lemon curd and subtle tropical notes with naturally occurring acidity in a generous, yet tightly wound, persistent finish. A wine with a long cellaring potential ahead of it.

Food and wine pairing

The combination of fruit intensity, citrus notes and refreshing acidity in Reserve Riesling complement a wide range of Asian cuisine. Enjoy the drier styles with salads, Japanese tempura and light seafood or chicken dishes, and the sweeter styles with spicy yet fragrant Asian dishes, such as Thai curry.